

Teen Gaming: What every parent needs to know

A webinar for parents, and carers of teens and tweens

The online information session is hosted by Maribyrnong Youth Services and presented by Andrew Kinch from GameAware, to give you the opportunity to get some specific advice and solutions from a gaming expert GameAware's mission is to bridge the gap between gamers, parents and professionals through education and intelligent gaming strategies.

- Minimize compulsion and escapism by building resilience.
- Reduce the conflict around gaming at home.
- Develop self-knowledge and a greater sense of fulfilment.
- Learn how to play intelligently and sustainably.
